

KALAMAZOO COLLEGE

celebrating 175 years: 1833-2008

FAMILY WEEKEND 30 October – 1 November 2009

Consistent with our H1N1 prevention efforts, we ask that family members and others planning to visit for Family Weekend avoid coming to campus if they are ill. We appreciate your help in preventing the spread of influenza at K.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 30, 2009
7:45am-9pm Upjohn Library	Biggby Café (The Book Club) open
8am-5pm Hicks, Arcus Atrium	Information Table Throughout the day EXPLORE KALAMAZOO. Pick up shopping, walking and dining suggestions from the Information Table
8am-midnight Richardson Room, Hicks	Jazzman's Café open
8:30am-3: 55pm	Attend a K Class List of classes available at the Information Table
9am-5pm Hicks, lower level	Bookstore open
10am and 11am Admissions, Mandelle	Guided tours of the campus
11-11:40am Stetson Chapel	Honors Day Convocation Kalamazoo College observes Honors Day in the fall quarter of each year, recognizing at a convocation those students who have earned honors for the year and those who have won special prizes during the previous academic year.
Noon-1am Hicks	Game room open. There's something for everyone. Simply take your K ID to the Union Desk, located in the Arcus Atrium, and check out the equipment. Please play responsibly, and ENJOY!
11am-1: 30pm Hicks, Cafeteria	Lunch available Tickets available for guests ($6.95) outside of cafeteria.
1-3pm Rare Book Room, 3rd floor, Upjohn Library	"The French Connection: History, Architecture, Literature, Culture." The exhibit features materials relating to France from the A.M. Todd Rare Book Room Collection.
3-5pm Lower level of Stetson Chapel	Cavern Open House. Meet the chaplain and student chaplains and learn more about spiritual opportunities on campus

5-7pm Hicks, Cafeteria	Dinner available Tickets available for guests ($8.75) outside of cafeteria
5pm-Midnight	Explore Kalamazoo. Pick up a list of shopping, walking, and dining suggestions at the Information Table in Hicks
9:30pm Banquet Hall, Hicks	Freaky Zoo Flicks. Freaky Zoo Film, Check out the latest Harry Potter installment, Harry Potter and the Half Blood Prince in the Hicks Banquet Hall. Some seating will be available but blankets and pillows are welcome. Concessions available for purchase.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 31, 2009

8am-3pm Fine Arts Lobby	Information Table Throughout the day EXPLORE KALAMAZOO. Pick up shopping, walking and dining suggestions from the Information Table.
10am-4pm Hicks, lower level	Bookstore Open
8am-midnight Richardson Room, Hicks	Jazzman's Café open
9-10:15am Dalton Theatre, Light Fine Arts	A Parent's Guide to Study Abroad What do parents of first and second year students need to know about study abroad? Joe Brockington, Associate Provost of International Programs.
9:30-10:45am Hicks cafeteria	Continental Breakfast available Tickets available for guests ($3.50) outside of cafeteria
9:30am-9pm Upjohn Library	Biggby Café (The Book Club) open
10, 10:30, and 11am Admissions, Mandelle Hall	Guided tours of the campus
10:30-11:45am Dewing Commons, Dewing 103	Career Professionals Sponsored by the Office of Career and Professional Development. Kalamazoo College has a long tradition of career development through externships and internships. Learn more about how these programs can intersect for the benefit of our students.

10:30-11:45am Olmsted Room, Mandelle Hall	Class Sampler for parents: Bruce Mills, Professor of English “Crossing Borders: A Seminar on Autism and Other Ways of Knowing” This sample class draws from activities and content from a First-Year Seminar on autism. In addition to offering some information on autism, the class will reflect upon the service-learning component of the actual seminar, i.e., students’ experiences with families who have a child on the autism spectrum.
Noon-1am Hicks	Game room open. There’s something for everyone. Simply take your K ID to the Union Desk, located in the Arcus Atrium, and check out the equipment. Please play responsibly, and ENJOY!
11:15am-1: 15pm Hicks, Cafeteria	Brunch available Tickets available for guests ($6.95) outside of cafeteria
1-2:15pm Dewing 103	Class Sampler for parents: Chris Latiolais, Professor of Philosophy and winner of the 2009 Lucasse Award for Excellence in Teaching “What is Existentialism?” Do you choose relationships because they are good, or are relationships good because you have chosen them? What would an existentialist say?
1-2:15pm Olmsted Room, Mandelle Hall	A Parents’ Guide to Student Development Join Sarah Westfall (Dean of Students), Pat Ponto (Director of the Counseling Center), Zaide Pixley (Dean of the First Year and Advising), Liz Candido (Chaplain), and Karen Joshua-Wathel (Associate Dean of Students) in a discussion of the joys and challenges of parenting a college students. Please bring your questions and concerns.
1-3pm Rare Book Room, 3rd floor, Upjohn Library	“The French Connection: History, Architecture, Literature, Culture.” The exhibit will feature materials relating to France from the A.M. Todd Rare Book Room Collection.
2:30pm MacKenzie Field	Men’s Soccer “K” vs Calvin. GO HORNETS!
4pm	Fun things that happen on campus with Residential Life & Student Activities.
4:30-6pm Hicks, Cafeteria	Special Dinner available This will be a special dinner that will include a costume contest, a pumpkin carving contest, caramel apples and more! Tickets available for guests ($8.75) outside of cafeteria.
7-9pm Stetson	Musical – Gospel Come enjoy a fun, exciting, uplifting gospel musical with our very own Kalamazoo College Gospel Choir, and invited community guests.

9pm-1am Hicks Center	The Zoo After Dark: Haunted Hicks It's so fun, it's SCARY! Don't miss the second Haunted Hicks event, part of the Zoo After Dark series. The evening will frighten you with the Haunted house, a re-screening of the Freaky Friday Nite Flicks, free food, games, tarot & palm reading, and much more. Sponsored by the Office of Residence Life and the Office of Student Activities.
--------------------------------	---

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 1, 2009
10:30am-noon Stone Room, Hicks	Brunch with the President Tickets sold early $10.00 per person.* 80 person limit. Share BREAKFAST WITH Kalamazoo College President and other parents. President Wilson-Oyelaran will give an update on events at K.
11:30am-1:30am Upjohn Library	Biggby Café (The Book Club) open
Noon-1:30pm Dow Science Center	Walk Off Your Brunch and Tour the Lillian Anderson Arboretum Meet John Fraser and student docents at the Dow Science parking lot at noon to carpool out. Dress for the weather. Cancelled if it's pouring rain. Maps available at the Information Desk.
Noon-1am Hicks	Game room open. There's something for everyone. Simply take your K ID to the Union Desk, located in the Arcus Atrium, and check out the equipment. Please play responsibly, and ENJOY!

*If you plan to attend Brunch with the President, please make checks payable to: Kalamazoo College
Mail to: Sally Arent, Kalamazoo College, 1200 Academy, Kalamazoo, MI 49006