

Groups for Service Learning Project
 Political Science 232: Environmental Policy & Politics
 Winter 2008

---

Task	Group
1. Research the role of government officials (including interviews)	Amber Guerrero	Theresa Tejada	Sara Locke	Brandon Foutz
2. Research the role of citizens (including interviews)	Allie Sachnoff	Laura Sayen	Stephanie Willette	Mali Gruezo
3. Research the scientific knowledge about risks of PCBs to humans (hydrogeology, physiology, chemistry, digestion of fish, soil science, etc.)	Pat Grucelski	Sophie Huckabay	Zach Klug	Eli Melaas
4. Research the history of paper mills – economic impact, why located on rivers, what PCBs were used for, where PCBs disposed, why mills left area	Ben Cooper	Hussain Turk	David Wayne	Hank Wisher
5. Research state government budgets, funding, priorities for hazardous wastes	James Hutchinson	Chloe Reeves	Marcquel Pickett	Naseem Mazloom
6. Research U.S. national policies and practices re: Superfund law	Rob Carollo	Jenna Hertz	Nick Leonard	Erin Mette
7. Collect and coordinate above six assignments plus general research	Chris Begeny	Garrett Johnson
8. Compile, edit, and complete writing of final report plus general research	Toni Skalican			